

The Legal Use of Force

In this class, we will cover important legal topics, including the laws governing the legal use of force inside and outside the home. This class is for beginners, intermediate, advance students shooters, and anyone with a desire to understand the legal use of deadly force. During the class, several videos or real incidents will be presented. Students will have the opportunity to provide their thoughts and opinions of the incidents.

Time: To be determined (Check calendar for class date)

Location: 509 Toms Creek Road, Hopkins, SC 29061

Course objectives:

- Reviewing the legal definition of :
 - ⇒ Reasonable Force
 - ⇒ Deadly Force
- Understanding the Use of Force Continuum
- Four Pillars for justifying the Use of Deadly Force
- How self-dense differs:
 - ⇒ Outside the home
 - ⇒ Inside the home
- Defending property

Required items:

- Pen or pencil
- Note pad

For more information contact:
Robert G. Sirmons Jr. at (803) 553-7711
or email: RobertSirmons@gmail.com